

City Crime Rankings 2008-2009

Missing Cities

The data collection method used by the states of Illinois and Minnesota for the offense of forcible rape did not meet the FBI's UCR guidelines in 2007 (Rockford, Illinois is an exception). Given that the rape numbers were not available, the following cities are not included in the comparative analysis: Aurora, IL; Chicago, IL; Elgin, IL; Joliet, IL; Naperville, IL; Peoria, IL; Springfield, IL; Bloomington, MN; Duluth, MN; Minneapolis, MN; Rochester, MN; and St Paul, MN.

In addition, 2007 aggravated assault data were not available for Brockton, MA and motor vehicle theft data were not available for Warren, MI, thus they were not included in the comparative analysis.

The FBI did not report crime data for 16 other cities with populations larger than 75,000. Crime statistics for these cities were unavailable for a number of reasons, ranging from general reporting difficulties and computer issues to changes in reporting systems. Below is a list of cities with populations greater than 75,000 (according to the U.S. Census Bureau) for which no information was available in the FBI's 2007 Uniform Crime Report.

Augusta, GA	Decatur, IL	Fall River, MA	New Haven, CT
Champaign, IL	Deltona, FL	Kansas City, MO	Olathe, KS
Cicero, IL	Durham, NC	Longmont, CO	Warwick, RI
Citrus Heights, CA	Evanston, IL	Manchester, NH	Winston-Salem, NC
